

Activity	As it was - no Covid-19 restrictions, campuses operating at full capacity.	Cautious – flexibility on- and off-campus.	Current	Increased caution – online delivery with minimal on-campus offer.	Controlled – exclusively online offer.
Learning and Teaching	On-campus with all face-to-face opportunities reinstated.	Limited on-campus opportunities with social distancing guidelines and wearing of face coverings in most settings.	Significantly reduced on-campus opportunities, with the majority of learning and teaching delivered online.	All learning and teaching delivered online with the exception of some allied health, initial teacher education and social work programmes.
Labs and Specialist Spaces	Facilities fully open.	Limited access to specialist facilities in line with course priorities.	Reduced access to specialist facilities in line with course priorities.	Facilities closed to all.
Library and Information Services	All resources available digitally and physically. Learning and study spaces return to full capacity.	Limited access to facilities on-campus. Browsing library shelves prohibited, with enhanced click and collect service and remote access available.	Facilities closed. Digital services available through the Library & Informaiton Services study pages .	Facilities closed. Digital services available through the Library & Informaiton Services study pages .
Elite Sport	Facilities open at full capacity with Covid-19 restrictions withdrawn. Public access reinstated.	Facilities open to elite athletes and specific modules only – no public access.	Facilities open to elite athletes only – no public access.	Facilities closed to all.
Student Services and Employability	On-campus services resume with access to all facilities and schemes available in person and online.	Enhanced on-line offer available across all services and schemes.	EOpen with enhanced on-line offer available across all services and schemes through MetHub .	Open with enhanced on-line offer available across all services and schemes through MetHub .
iZone	Information desks on both campuses reopen at full capacity.	Llandaff desk open operating a limited service. Cyncoed desk closed, with all services available online.	Open and available on MetHub and izone@cardiffmet.ac.uk . All physical informaiton points closed.	Open and available on MetHub and izone@cardiffmet.ac.uk . All physical informaiton points closed.
Catering Facilities	Outlets open and services returned to full capacity.	Reduced capacity and take-away only options available at some outlets. Residential catering open with social distancing guidelines in most settings.	Take-away only options available across most facilities. Residential catering delivered to halls of residence.	Facilities closed to all with provision for residential students on-campus.
Residential Facilities	Facilities open at full capacity with the withdrawal of household (or bubble) restrictions.	Facilities open with current household (or bubbles) restrictions in place.	Facilities open with restrictions in place. Students should only return to campus if their studies are being delivered face-to-face.	Facilities open with restrictions in place. Students should only return to campus if their studies are being delivered face-to-face.
Students' Union	Bar, Café and social spaces reopened at full capacity.	Bar, Café and social spaces operating at reduced capacity	Facilities closed to all. Digital services available through the Students' Union online.	Facilities closed to all. Digital services available through the Students' Union online.
Sport and Recreation	Sports clubs and societies return to training at full capacity and with fans.	Sports clubs and societies training under restrictions. Limited competition opportunities.	All training and competition suspended.	All training and competition suspended.
Events and Open Days	Full range of events, campus tours, open days and opportunities available in person and digitally.	Physical events suspended, with all events available exclusively on digital platforms	Physical events suspended, with all events available exclusively on digital platforms.	Physical events suspended, with all events available exclusively on digital platforms.

