ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS

Some courses will require additional documentation to be supplied as part of the application process.

For example, art courses will prompt to upload a portfolio, PhD courses will prompt for a proposal. On this page, it will confirm what additional documents are required and give an option to browse your desktop and upload these documents.

Please see example below of a request for a portfolio:

Additional Documents

- Please note you will be required to submit a portfolio of your work either as a PDF document or you can submit a link to your online portfolio/website (please add this link to a word document and upload the document).

DOCUMENT TYPE

Please note that all Exchange students will need to complete and upload the “Exchange Coordinator Details” form.

Please be aware that some additional documents are mandatory and part of the application process, but some may be optional. If you do not have the required documents and it is mandatory to submit you can save the application and come back to it at any time.

If the course you have chosen does not require any additional documents this page will not be visible and as such will take you to the Declaration and Submission page instead.
