

ELIGIBILITY

- This award is for Home fee paying students.
- This award is for current students enrolled upon second year undergraduate courses, who completed Year 1 of their course in 2021, with a permanent address in an area that has the lowest participation rates in Higher Education as defined by the Higher Education Funding Councils for either Wales (HEFCW) or England (HEFCE). We use the information held on your student record to determine your permanent postcode.
- You do not need to apply for this award, if eligible you will be considered.

LIMITATIONS

- You may only be considered for a Progression Award allocated to the academic school in which you are enrolled.
- Limited numbers of this award are available. Allocation priority will be given to those with the highest percentage marks at the end of the 2020/21 academic year (data as held by the Academic Registry). In the event that two students in competition for the award within the same academic school have identical final average percentage marks, a range of criteria will be employed to finalise the allocation including household income (lowest), date of reply to Cardiff Metropolitan University (earliest), date of application to Cardiff Metropolitan University (earliest) and/or Level 3 marks (highest tariff).
- The award will not be allocated to anyone who has previously or who is currently re-sitting, repeating any part of their course assessments, or has been withdrawn or suspended from their studies.
- This award is not available to those studying on NHS or Welsh Government funded programmes.
- This award is not available to those studying at franchised colleges. Please contact your local college to discuss bursary and scholarship availability.

AWARD

- Award correspondence will be sent to your student email address with Cardiff Metropolitan University.
- You must be enrolled at Cardiff Metropolitan University in January 2022 to receive confirmation of the award.
- The Progression Award will be awarded as a cash award of £1,000 per student, paid directly into your bank account by 31st January 2022.
- Please note, this award will not necessarily be implemented in further academic years.
