

Tempus

Leadership Centre Grand Opening in Lebanon!

As part of Tempus Leadership in Higher Education (LHEM) led by Cardiff Metropolitan University, Professor Mohamed Loutfi is pleased to announce the opening of the leadership centres in Lebanon.

A major activity of this project is to form Leadership centres at each of the ten partner universities in Lebanon, Egypt, Tunisia and Morocco. On 6th-7th July, Leadership Centres were opened at each of the two Lebanese universities.” The Modern University for Business and Science and Beirut Arab University” These centres consisted of video conferencing equipment to support the network of university leaders virtual meetings, Women’s in higher Education Elite Leaders network, a laboratory for Masters students and E learning and also hosting an Equal Opportunity Centre.

LHEM

The centres are fully funded by the Tempus project. The opening ceremony was attended by the National Tempus Office representative in Lebanon Professor Aref Soufi, Dr Bassem Kaissi, Dr Soubhi Abou Chahine, MUBS board of Trustees, MUBS and BAU Presidents, MUBS and BAU faculty members, Lebanese universities representatives, local community VIPs and Deans from different faculties in MUBS and BAU.

These centres will form a sustainable output for the project and will help both Lebanese universities further their claims to be truly international and global universities.

Cardiff Metropolitan University

Prifysgol Metropolitan Caerdydd