

Recognition of Prior Experiential Learning (RPEL) Application Form

The purpose of this document is to enable you to provide information and evidence to support your application for Recognition of your Prior Experiential Learning (RPEL) within the University.

Once completed, your application will be sent to the Programme Tutor for consideration. The Programme Tutor will then contact you to discuss your application and the process involved in RPEL.

SECTION 1: Personal Information

Contact details:
Surname:		Forename:
Student ID: (If previous student)		Date of Birth:
Address:		Email:
		Home Number:
		Mobile Number:

SECTION 2: Programme Details

	Programme details:
Area of study,
subject area or programme for which RPL is sought:
Mode of study (Full/Part Time):

SECTION 3: Qualifications

Formal or partly completed qualifications and/or learning gained through life/work experience:

^{*}Complete on a separate sheet if needed

SECTION 4: Experience / Employment History

Work Experience / Employment History:
Company / Organisation name	Dates of work/Life experience	Job title	Brief summary of the roles and responsibilities

^{} Work and life experience can be relevant experience gained from employment, voluntary work and activities, professional experience, relevant leisure activities.

SECTION 5: Personal Statement

Personal Statement
reisonal Statement
Please provide a personal statement evidencing your learning on which the claim is based.
This should include skills that relate to the programme, experience obtained at work and/or experience you have had working with groups e.g. clubs, organisations, committees, bands etc.

The Application Process for RPEL

Expression of Interest completed and sent to RPL Inbox RPLAdmissions@cardiffmet.ac.uk Expression of Interest sent to Programme Tutor who contacts applicant and issues an application form if appropriate Application form returned via RPLAdmissions@cardiffmet.ac.uk Admissions verify Application form. If successful, RPL Adviser is assigned and contacts applicant to agree a fee, timescale, level of support and issue the RPL Portfolio Fee paid to the University RPL Portfolio completed by applicant with support from RPL Adviser. Portfolio submitted by deadline set at beginning of process to the RPL Adviser. RPL Portfolio is assessed by the University and applicant is informed if credit claim is successful. Successful applicants receive credit through entry onto a further programme or issuing of a transcript.

Applicant given an opportunity to resubmit if application is not successful (this may incur extra fees for additional support).